Steven B. Stevens known by many as "The Voice of God" recorded many Bible translations that have been duplicated into over 100 million cassettes and CDs. Steven, a passionate Christian, who knows how the word of God changes and uplifts lives, wants everyone to know the good news of Jesus. He has supported missionaries worldwide, made over 20 trips to Africa, and led many groups into Russia bringing in medical supplies and Bibles. When you listen to this narration you will understand why he is known as "The Voice of God."

the bad news to me is the voice of Steven Stevens. he says the consonants at the end of a word for too long. for example, if the word at the end of a sentence is "him", then it sounds like "himmm". he doesn't know when to stop! it borders on comical, but is definitely annoying. i've never heard someone speak like this. also, he tries to be theatrical in his reading for too many verses and it makes the Scriptures worse for listening to. and alot of times his voice fluctuations(emotions) are off to what is actually being stated by the bible. also, he speaks too deeply many times, for he already has a deep voice. again it sounds bad. he has a presentation of the Scriptures that i can never get used to. he needs to speak strictly monotone in his normal voice, but doesn't. i finally had to buy NASB on cd's because my cassettes were wearing out after about 15yrs. so i new the benefits of cd's and bought on-line. i previously listened to "Red" Jefferies for the NASB and i thought he is the best i have ever heard. i couldn't find him on cd, bummer :(the good news is i found NASB on cd's, and i bought a portable sony cd player...and love the player and the cd world for playing the bible over-and-over. because of my great love for the NASB(i wish every christian would make this translation their first priority!), i still rate the whole steven b. stevens experience as good. i would recommend this cd package to every christian. God bless you brethren, and draw close to the Lord, and stay there! fix your "ears" on Him, too.

My husband had this in the New Testament only. He has it playing softly in a CD player that he listens to all night as he sleeps. He really loves doing that. He wanted the Old Testament too, so we've bought this. I really dislike Max McLean's voice, so I was glad to be able to find Steven had more versions available. He sounds very soothing. I can hear it too and it is nice to go to sleep to. We'll put the NT that we own now in the car when we go on trips. It is so much more energizing to the soul than the junk that is on the radio now days! Even Christian stations have stupid commercials and irritating rock music!

Very nice.

Love the convenience to listen in my vehicle as it seems I spend a lot of time driving back and forth everywhere! Helps when you don't get a chance to sit down and read the Bible so great to be able to listen to it! :)

I believe I rated the NASB cd edition once already, but I don't see it included in the reviews?

Perhaps I am mistaken and my review was not on . Anyway, I would give this a negative 20 rating if I could. I had this set some 7-8 years ago but it took until recently to listen to all of it and there were several books that were plagued with poor recording quality...popping, lines repeating so badly that the book would not finish. It was impossible to rip those books (I, II Peter... Hebrews... Revelation...etc.)to my ipod.Since I ordered it so long ago, I decided all was lost until I saw how cheap the set had become...so I figured, what the heck, they have to have had many complaints by now and surely the recordings have been cleaned up.NOPE! This is a totally unprofessional and unacceptable product. I am impressed that allowed me to return them, so my business will continue with ...but be forewarned...several of these books can not be listened to without tremendous frustration.

These were a gift to my grandfather. He really likes them. They have clear sound and is an easy way to hear the Word.

Skips difficult to hear.

Excellent, very clear and easy to listen to. Makes good use of the time on the road.
