Customer Reviews

I collect dolls from the 1930s-60s and am always looking for authentic retro- or retro-style patterns.

This book is clearly written - lots of little 'watch out' tips all through it as the author warns of possible errors we may make (based on her own experience?) The illustrations are enchanting and the patterns are adorable - little sun suits with bonnets, cute little day dresses - it's a fabulous addition to my doll collecting library and I really look forward to more from her and/or the publishers. I love that old books like this are now available on Kindle.

This is a wonderful, charming book. The author, rather than giving a lot of precise patterns, mostly tells the sewer how to fit their doll. She encourages originality, and as the earlier reviewer said gives lots of gentle watch outs. This was a book I'd originally checked out of the library and liked so much I got my own copy.
