Customer Reviews

I purchased this conglomeration of pieces, several which are duplicated in other Jim Brickman publications, specifically for the Patriotic Medley that was listed in the advertised table of contents. Hmm, there is no Patriotic Medley in this mess. There is a little twiddle on America the Beautiful and some other original tunes, some of which are not unique to this book. Jim Brickman fills his books with a few new things and then throws in selections from other collections. It seems impossible to get a book that isn't at least partially represented elsewhere. I wanted the advertised Patriotic Medley for a function this weekend but guess I will have to come up with the goods elsewhere. Jim Brickman has a few good riffs but his collections are a ripoff because of the gross amount of duplication.

Disappointed in the "patriotic" songs that were included but I do love the America the Beautiful arrangement. There are some other nice songs included - just wish there were more patriotic songs...

In order to comment, I had to rate this item. I ordered it for a Veteran's Day Program last fall. What I received was a mangled, opened, scarred envelope that the remainder of the mailing label had only my last name and zip code. It came in a plastic bag from the USPS with a form note saying "Sorry." There was no invoice or book received by me. I filed a lost /search with the PO and followed up several times at the local post office with no results. Therefore, I liked the book and contents I ordered; I just wish I'd received it. I understand that the seller sent it in good faith...I just didn't get my book.
