Customer Reviews

Excellent little Quechua (Cuzco variety) written by an outstanding scholar, Seraf n Coronel-Molina. This should be a quick reference not only for travelers, but any fieldworker going to the Southern Peruvian Andes should have this little book at hand. Highly recommended for its clarity, engaging prose, and very clear layout. If you are studying Quechua, this is what you'll keep in your pocket!

There's just something about this little, well made book, that makes me love it.

Nice compact book with everything I need to learn basic Quechua for my travels. I recommend it Very helpful, it has basic things for the language Quechua that can let you communicate with native people.

Certainly nice to have. If hanging out in Cusco, really would not need it. But if traveling through the rural Andes, it is good to be at a level of Quechua to be polite.

sooo good

I am from Ecuador and love to know how to communicate in quechua...

good stuff
