Customer Reviews

Got this for my 11 yo flute player. It's difficult but a good challenge for her future playing.

I bought this book for Bouree, but there were definitely some other Jethro Tull favorites I would have liked to see in here. The arrangement for Bouree is perfect, and even a relative beginner will have no trouble playing at least the first section of the song. My only complaint is that the book wasn't longer. If a Volume 2 comes out, I'll definitely buy it.

Near perfect for any Jethro Tull fan that is trying to learn the flute. I am a little disappointing that some songs are missing, but I presume this book came out before them, or simply was published without them. Still, rock on!

I purchased this book for my middle school age daughter last year. She had been playing flute for about 3 years. She has been to a couple Jethro Tull concerts and had much exposure to their music since I have been a Tull fan for many many years. She was delighted (as was I) to find out that she could play the music at first sight read. And, it sounded just like the record! There is a preface that explains how to do some of the unusual techniques that Ian uses, which really seemed to help her since she is classically trained. I feel this book is very well done and would definitely recommend it to any flute playing Jethro Tull fan. When will book II be out!?!?

For intermediate to advanced skilled players, a wonderful compilation of great pieces of music. I must say I needed to listen more to the original songs to fully comprehend how to play. Great packaging, arrived on time as planned.

Doesn't have all my favorites but what is there is great!

Great product. Thank you.

Great book of transcriptions!
