Jack (Ella Wood Novellas Book 2)

Synopsis

Keeping secrets is a lonely business when they're as dangerous as Jack's. Jack is the second of three novellas that accompany the highly acclaimed Ella Wood trilogy, a Civil War historical fiction series. Jack can be read as a stand-alone, but when Ella Wood, book one of the main trilogy, is only 99 cents, why not start there? BOOK DESCRIPTION: For the better part of a decade, Jack has lived a double life. To all appearances, he's the spoiled heir to one of Charleston's wealthiest plantations. But his life would be forfeit and his family in jeopardy if anyone knew what he'd really been up to. He'd be shunned from polite society if anyone guessed his plans for Ella Wood. So he maintains his lonely façade, with no realistic hopes of marriage and only slaves to confide in. When war comes to Charleston, Jack enlists in the South Carolina infantry. But military service brings him into contact with a beautiful and unlikely confidante. Will his dreams for Ella Wood outlast the war? Will his new love? SERIES DESCRIPTION: Lizzie, Jack, Jovie... you've grown to love them. Now come to a deeper understanding of these important characters through their own experiences. This upcoming series will fill in additional details in the Ella Wood trilogy's main story line. In this second installment, read the stirring account of Jack's life and love in service to the Confederacy. Each Ella Wood novella is approximately 85-95 pages, available only for Kindle, and priced right. To avoid spoilers within the original Ella Wood trilogy, the following reading order is recommended: Book 1: Lizzie. To be read anytime after the first book of the Ella Wood trilogy, Ella Wood. Book 2: Jack. To be read anytime after the second book of the Ella Wood trilogy, Blood Moon. Book 3: Jovie. To be read after the third book of the Ella Wood trilogy, Ebb Tide. Coming September 25, 2017. BOXED SET: Each novella will be available individually until Halloween and permanently in the Ella Wood Novellas boxed set. Feel good about the low price! Customer Reviews

This book is a perfect complement to the Ella Wood trilogy. I loved being able to see some of the same events from a different character's point of view. It opened my eyes not only to a better understanding of Jack himself, but to a clearer picture of the events of the Civil War in general and his family's and friends' involvement in particular. The trilogy doesn't leave any gaps that I noticed at the time, and yet after I read this book, I realized that somehow it still manages to fill them. :-) It could stand on its own, but I particularly recommend it to anyone who has read Ella Wood. You won't want to miss this glimpse into Jack's life!
