Customer Reviews

Very good book with some good insight, Oren illustrates the principles he is sharing with some good stories.

Having read only the first 3 chapters of Pitch Anything I am already qualified to say that this summary is NOT a summary. It barely covers the first two chapters and does so without any evident insight into the essential points made. I can't imagine that the rest of the book doesn't offer anything worth commenting, but that's the impression one would perceive draw from this absurdly minimalist survey. I've taught 7th graders that would have done a more comprehensive job as book reportKindle expected me to take 30 minutes to read this...it took less than 4!
