Johannesburg Travel Guide: Sightseeing, Hotel, Restaurant & Shopping Highlights

Synopsis

Johannesburg offers visitors the opportunity to walk in the footsteps of history-makers like Nelson Mandela, Gandhi and Archbishop Desmond Tutu and to visit landmarks important in South Africa's road to social reform. The South African people refer to Johannesburg as Egoli, the City of Gold, given the gold mines that lie beneath the city and the Gold Rush that led to the city's founding in the late 1800s.

Customer Reviews

Very disappointing. I guess you get what you pay for, and in this case it's not much. As a first time traveller to South Africa I was looking for a book that would help me plan my itinerary for 2 days in Joburg. This book lacks so many important details like: how to get around, tipping customs and accurate descriptions of neighborhoods and the best restaurants and hotels in each. Even the descriptions the book contained were not accurate based on our experiences. Stick with one of the more well known travel guides.
