Customer Reviews

A life changer and excellent tool to guide you in the network marketing business. It does not matter if you are a seasoned Networker or brand new to the industry you need this book! I have found that by doing the SAVERS of the Miracle Morning added to my daily routine that I am more centered and more productive in my Nerium business!!

I was not a morning person. Honestly all I wanted to do was sleep in. My husband tells me often, "A person can do anything for XX amount of time." I thought I can try this for a couple of weeks and then go back to sleeping in again. It is amazing the difference you will see in your life and your business. Mornings are the key to getting to our some days. As a mom of three young children, it has been wonderful getting a head start to my day. I have accomplished many of my priorities by the time my little ones get up. This helps in getting closer to my personal and business goals. It has helped me to realize that my personal and business goals are one and the same. When you start your day on your schedule, the way you want to, you own your day. Parts of your life start fitting into place like a puzzle and you wake up excited for the changes you are creating. It is like waking up on Christmas morning, but you are the present giver and making it all possible. Yes, there are pleasant surprises when the ball starts rolling on it's own. This book shares how others have accomplished this with their morning routines. I am glad to be able to reference back to what many top 1% percent earners do with their miracle mornings. It is all in the same book! Many even have bonus interviews you can watch!! Network marketing is a great opportunity. This book helps you to understand the basics of making this opportunity the best it can be for each of us. This line explains it better than I can, "upgrade your life to a first class experience beyond your wildest dreams." It takes reading and implementing. That is it.

I LOVE this book. I've been implementing a few of the morning rituals mentioned for a few years and added a few since reading the original MM book. These "habits" are the key to creating not only a successful network marketing business but also key in creating a successful life. What I love most about this book are the stories, loved reading the way other high producing NWM entrepreneurs get their day started to create extraordinary lives. Thanks Pat and Hal.

No More Excuses. Hal Elrod has done it again, and this time he, Pat Petrini, and Honoree Corder have taken network marketing and created a morning routine that has made it almost impossible for a marketer to be successful IF they apply the principles and concepts here. And that's only the first section. The second section is a no-nonsense guide to actually create results during the rest of your day. This book is absolutely for people that are achieving at a high level in their network marketing business and want to fine tune their skills and start getting more results, all the way down to people who are just starting out and are overwhelmed with where to begin. With simple actions like just paying attention to your daily schedule, this book can help anyone take their life and their brand to the next level. As a side note, this book is so straight forward, concise, and clear, that there really is no excuses left to be made for why a person's business doesn't flourish. This book is not for the person who just wants to "think about" network marketing. This is for the person that's ready to excel in it.

Personally, I think this book is an incredibly useful tool whether you are in network marketing or not. There is so much self-neglect in our society and I really view the ideas in this book as not only great for business but also as what should be part of everyone's self care routine! This book came along at the perfect time as I had just started exploring the feeling of how I wanted to start my day differently. I would go to bed dreading the next morning and wake up not wanting to believe the next morning had already arrived. I am really in to self reflection and am currently doing deep work on myself through therapy, holistic counseling, and bodywork, and I think transforming my morning routine is the next step to take me where I want to go personally and professionally. I am really looking forward to implementing a lot of the ideas in this book and seeing the affects in several areas of my life. Read this book!

The Miracle Morning for Network Marketers: Grow Yourself FIRST to Grow Your Business Fast! I'm really enjoying this book! I actually got the Kindle version and it's terrific! It takes the foundation of Hal Elrod's The Miracle Morning and his Life S.A.V.E.R.S, and customizes that for Network Marketing professionals, in the same way that other versions of The Miracle Morning have been stylized for Real Estate and Sales pros. The Miracle Morning for Network Marketers includes access to some amazing interviews by Network Marketing legends such as Ray Higdon (who also wrote the Forward), Mark Hoverson, Todd Falcone, Ann Seig, and more! Co-Authored by Pat Petrini, this is an easy and energetic read, and one I expect to read and refer to over and over. I'm looking forward to the audio release so I can listen in my car. This is a great book, and a must-have for any serious Network Marketer!

I haven't even gotten to the meat and potatoes of this book and I'm already feeling my life change for the better! I've always been a morning person but I have wasted precious countless hours and years of mornings not being productive. This is going to be life altering for anyone! You don't have to be a network marketer to gain personal empowerment from this book!
