Christine Coirault is a published author and an illustrator of children's books. Some of the published credits of Christine Coirault include Gymboree Colors, Gymboree Shapes, Gymboree Alphabet (Gymboree Play & Music), and Gymboree Numbers: Learn to count in five languages (English, Spanish, French, German, Italian) (Gymboree).

Illustrations are nice and the initial concept would be great. Unfortunately, they didn't complete that concept. The numbers are provided in 5 languages, but the objects that are counted are ONLY in English - this was really disappointing. It would have been easy for them to provide the translations for leaves, flowers, etc. Yes, you could learn to count in 5 languages, but I was hoping for a truly multi-lingual book.

I love this book. I am a language junkie and want to expose my young children to as many different cultures and languages as possible. This book is simple, with engaging illustrations and offers the opportunity to count in four languages... Spanish, German, Italian and French. Clear pronunciations are given for each word, as well as a summary of 1-10 in each language on the last pages. It is a wonderful book, as are the other three books in this series. I highly recommend it!

My 18 month old loves the simple pictures in these books and we use them to teach more than just numbers. We point out pictures, colors, sounds and of course use the other languages provided to teach new words.
