The best word to describe this book is 'thorough.' The book covers literature from earlier than the SAT usually tests to passages released less than a year ago. The book covers every type of passage: from pieces of internal reflection to stories of two interacting characters. The questions are thought-provoking and detail-oriented, preparing any student with the diligence needed to easily ace the SAT literature passage. both the SAT and upper education in general.

This book is definitely worth buying! It's a great source to practice challenging, yet interesting literature passages. It also includes thorough explanations of the answers to all of the questions. Currently, I'm prepping for the SAT and I use this book with my tutor. Although I struggle a little, I do see improvements. I 100% recommend this book!
