Customer Reviews

Looks like another waste of time books written by someone learning English. Their English isn't bad, just not up to writing a book, and definitely not up to writing a book about writing anything. As to content, there isn't any to speak of, reading a cereal box will be just about as informative and useful on the subject of Erotica as this book is. When you do a search of this author you find three other books all as highly praised as I'm giving this one and likely for the same reason. This individual has NO experience about what they are trying to talk about, just a money grab - don't waste your time or money on this - it can only teach you what some one else does not know about the subject.

This book didn't meet any of my expectations. It was so general, it didn't help me very much. I know it was only 28 pages, but the book should have been loaded with much more valuable information for the money.

While the book shared some small insights, it was not nearly as informative as I had hoped. Much of the information within is found in similar books and to greater detail.
